CANTERBURY HALL .- The Melville family, which is engaged at the Canterbury, will appear again to-night, in conjunction with other artists of note, at this institution. OXFORD MUSIC HALL.-This handsome new establishment is meeting with great success for the short time it has been in existence. The company is admirably selected, embracing some of the best artists the country can produce, and the pieces put on the stage have a freshness giving them great attractiveness WASHINGTON THEATER .- The diorama of the present war now on exhibition at this place is a splendid specimen of art, and has been gotten up at great expense. Itsrepresentations of the principal conflicts of the rebellion are excellent, and well worth a call. Go

NAVY YARD. - Every department of the yard is now in full blast, turning out daily fine specimens of workmanship. In the blacksmith shops, of which Mr. Brown is the master workman, large iron cables are daily in hand, as well as anchors, ranging from the smallest to one of 8,000 pounds, calculated for the largest vessels affeat. To forge these tremendous anchors the large trip-hammer. weighing 16,000 pounds, is brought into oper ation, and visitors who happen to be in the shop at the time, take great interest in the manner in which it is worked.

The boiler-maker's department, in charge of Mr. Lescallet, is in full blast also. This department is full of work, but more room is needed; indeed, much of the work of this department is now done in the open air, owing to the press upon it.

The copper rolling-mill, with its splendid engine, in charge of Mr. McNally, is also fully occupied, rolling out copper for sheathing, and working up much scrap material heretofore thrown away or sold to outside parties, at a loss to the Government.

The machinists and engineers' department (Mr. George R. Wilson in charge) now works over two hundred hands, is full of work, and the hands are just about completing three pairs of engines of 36- neh cyttnder for gunboats, which will fully sustain the reputation of the shop. Another p ir of engines, of 60-inch cylinder, are well under way. A pair of large engines, 100-inch cylinder, have just been placed in hand. Besides the new work done in this department, there is also a large amount of repairing done for vessels of the flotilla, &c. In some of the departments mechanics are badly needed, the force employed not being sufficient for the wants of the service, and especially are machinists, pattern makers, moulders and boiler makers wanted. For some time past no good mechanic applying for work has been refused, and, the wages here being as high as at any other point, a sufficient force for the demands of the service ought certainly to be obtained.

WE ARE OLAD to announce that the temporary wooden roof that was erected in the rotunda of the Capitol, to aid in the construction of the iron one above it, has been removed, and the panel work of the latter is revealed in all its massive grandeur. It is painted in a subdued color, but the work of gilding and other appropriate coloring will be a thing of time to com plete. This is to be done under the direction of Mr. James Galway, who has supervised the hazardous business of painting the exterior of the dome, without an accident befalling a single person engaged in it. One does not readily see how the concave surface of the ceiling of the rotunda is to be painted; but we were informed that it was to be effected by a shaft securely fastened at one end above the eye of the dome, while the other rested on the cornice, a hundred or so feet below, along which said shaft would be moved upon rollers or wheels. The cornice in question is about two feet wide, though from the floor below it does not seem to be more than four inches The lower cornice is four feet wide. When we have seen painters let down the outside of the dome upon narrow platforms, by apparently mere lines, it seems almost incredible that not the least accident has befallen one of them. So of those who have been employed in placing iron castings at dizzy heights

The tens of thousands of people that have walked, with sense of perfect security, across the floor of the rotunda, from one House of Congress to the other, little knew of the heavy masses of iron which were being swung into place above their heads, which, had there been any want of care by workmen, or a slip or break of machinery, would have been precipitated through the roof to the floor below.

FIFTH WARD DRAFT MEETING .- A meeting of the citizens of the 5th Ward was held last evening at Langley's Hall, on Capitol Hill, for the purpose of forming an association, whose object shall be to coilect money and expend it for recruits, &c , and thereby, if possible, relieve the Ward of a further draft Mr. A. Faber presided, and Mr. H. Fowler acted as Secretary.

The following permanent officers were elected :- G F. Gulick, President; H. C. Fowler, Secretary; and John Hitz, Treasurer. The above named officers with Messrs. Wm Nottingham, C. I. Canfield, Joseph Platz, and R. B. Ferguson were elected an executive committee, whose duty it shall be to collect funds, put in recruits, &c., to attain the object of the SUSPICION OF LARCENY .- John H. Stewart, a colored man, was arrested yesterday morning on suspicion of stealing a coat, and was taken to the 4th Ward station for a hearing. Stewart said that his rent was due, and he bought a stove, which left him without money. He took his coat and pledged it with George Hillen for a dollar's worth of meat, and a dollar in cash. Yesterday he went to get more money on the security of the coat, and Mr. Hillen suspected him of having stolen it, and caused his arrest. The case will be decided to day by Justice Giberson.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE .- On Sunday, at the Marine Barracks, private Charles Collins, lately one of the guard of the Wabash, made an attempt to take his life by cutting his throat with a razor. The wound was an extensive one and he lost much blood, yet owing to the proper treatment of it after he was discovered he will probably recover. Collins has been under a depression of spirits fore some time past, caused by long and continued illness.

GREAT SALE OF ROAD STOCK AND DURHAM CATTLE.-Elsewhere in the Star will be found an announcement of much interest to the admirers of good stock. We refer to the advertisement of the extensive sale by Clement Hill, Esq., of colts, fillies and Durham cattle, on November 29th, at his Upper Marlboro' farm. His stable is undoubtedly one of the best, if not the best, in the United States, and his sale this year will afford an opportunity of securing some of the best specimens of his superb collection. We know 'of many instances where parties buying pairs of colts at his sales sold them soon after at $1,500 to $2,000, realizing a handsome profit. The bare fact of their coming from Hill's stables is indeed a sufficient recommendation throughout all this part of the country, a fact due to his public spirited efforts in the way of stock raising, and the care he has taken with his breeus. The sale of Durham cattle will also be particularly attractive. His short-horn herd is decidedly the best this side of New York, and we doubt if even that State, so renowned for its cattle, can present a herd more valuable in some important respects than that of Mr. Hill's. A visit to the sale will richly repay the trouble, even if the visitor only goes to inspect and admire and not purchase.

MRS. ABNER S. BRADY, nee Pieris, the young and highly accomplished wife of Mr. Brady, the famous gymnast, who has just opened the splendid gymnasium in this city, made her debut in New York, a few days since, at Irving Hall, before one of the largest and most brilliant audiences ever assembled in that building. She is described in the New York journals as having created a furore surpassing that made by any debutante for years, her voice being very sweet, clear, and extremely powerful. She is very young, (nineteen years,) a Grecian by birth, and very beautiful. Mrs. Brady was assisted by the following powerful cast: M'lle Elena D'Angri. M'lle Eugenia Barnetche, Mr. S. U. Campbell, Mr. Wm. Castle, Mr. Gottschalk, Mr. Eben, Sig. Abella, and others Her cavatina from "Ernani" was encored three times, and the duetto from "Il Giuramento" with M. D'Angri was pronounced a perfect gem. Mrs. Brady's friends are numerous, and comprise the elite of New York musical society. and much interest is manifested in her behalf.

RT. REV. BISHOP SOUTHGATE, we learn, will officiate, and administer the rite of confirmation, in Grace Church, Island, on Friday evening next, at 7 o'clock. There will be service Thankgiving day at 11 o'clock, a. m., at this church also. On Saturday evening services of confirmation, by the Right Rev. Bishop Southgate at Epiphany Church. The learned Bishop will preach on Thursday morning in St. John's Church.

A SPECTACLE.—This morning. Fanny Jones, a young woman of the fancy order, was taken from a house in C street, near 13th, so drunk that the officer had to get a wheelbarrow and wheel her to the Second Ward Station. It was a novelty to see a female so finely clad and ornamented with jewelry taking a ride in a wheelbarrow. She was dumped out at the station-house, and will be obliged to pay expenses when sober.

FESTIVAL AND SUPPER -The ladies will give a festival and supper at Odd Fellows' Hall, Navy Yard, on to-morrow evening, to raise funds to exempt Rev. Wm. W. Reese from the draft. Persons who cannot attend can leave their contributions at the southeast corner of 6th and G streets, Navy Yard. MARINI'S SOIREES .- On Friday night Prof.

Marini gives the next of his delightful and popular series of semi-monthly solress, at his Dancing Academy, Temperance Hall. All who can should avail themselves of the opportunity to be present. SECOND WARD STATION CASES .- Kate Bar-
